2. The history or source notes appearing in parentheses after sections in this Code are not intended to have any legal effect but are merely intended to indicate the sources of matter contained in the section. Cross references, editor's notes and state law references which appear after sections or subsections of this Code or which otherwise appear in footnote form are provided for the convenience of the user of this Code and have no legal effect.
3. All references to chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions or sections are to the chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions and sections of this Code unless otherwise specified.
(Code 2007, 1-3)

Sec. 1-4. Effect of Repeals.

The repeal of an ordinance or any portion thereof shall not revive any ordinance in force before or at the time the ordinance repealed took effect. 3. If new material not heretofore in the Code is to be added, such provisions should be made by specific reference to the new section number(s) to be placed within this Code. The new provisions shall then be set out in full as desired with the ordinance number following each subsection added.

For example, the codifier may:
 - (1) Organize the ordinance material into appropriate subdivisions;
 - (2) Provide appropriate catch lines, headings and titles for sections and other subdivisions of the Code printed in the supplement, and make changes in such catch lines, headings and titles;
 - (3) Assign appropriate numbers to sections and other subdivisions to be inserted in the Code and, where necessary to accommodate new material, change existing section or other subdivision numbers;
 - (4) Change the words "this ordinance" or words of the same meaning to "this chapter," "this article," "this division," etc., as the case may be, or to "sections to" (inserting section numbers to indicate the sections of the Code which embody the substantive sections of the ordinance incorporated into the Code); and
 - (5) Make other non-substantive changes necessary to preserve the original meaning of ordinance sections inserted into the Code; but in no case shall the codifier make any change in the meaning or effect of ordinance material included in the supplement or already embodied in the Code.

(Code 2007, 1-6)

Sec. 1-7. Severability of Code.

1. The provisions of this Code are severable and if any provision of this Code is declared unconstitutional by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of this Code, since the same would have been enacted without the incorporation in this Code of such provision.
2. If any provision of this Code or the application thereof to any person, fact, situation or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this Code and the application of such provision to other persons, facts, situations or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

5. Violations of this Code that are continuous with respect to time may be abated by injunctive or other equitable relief. The imposition of a penalty does not prevent equitable relief.
6. The Judge may at his or her discretion, suspend or defer part or all of the fines or allow community service and or contributions to an organization approved by the court. All court costs as defined in Chapter 1 Section 3 of the City Code must be paid and shall not be suspended or deferred.

2. The adoption of this Code shall not be interpreted as authorizing or permitting any use or the continuance of any use of a structure or premises in violation of any ordinance of the city in effect on the date of adoption of this Code.
3. Prosecution for violations of ordinances prior to the effective date of this Code shall be governed, prosecuted and punished under the ordinances existing at the time the violations were committed.
