The Aztec Police Department is starting a Community Program (C.O.P.) this program entails the Police Department assigning an Officer to specific street or area. The Officer will work with the citizens in that area to improve safety and gain the citizens helps in solving cases. The street that will be used to initiate the program is Church Street, from Chaco, North to Aztec Boulevard.

The first meeting will be held May 21, 2013 at 6:00 p.m. at the Aztec High School Multi Purpose Room. We encourage all citizens in that area to participate; this is an exciting program that will help make your neighborhood a safer place. If you live in another area in town and are interested in starting a C.O.P. Program in your neighborhood, please contact: Sgt. Fincher @ 505-334-7601
